Fighting Scot Cross Country/ Track & Field Camp

The camp is for boys and girls entering grades 7-12 and features individualized instruction in each athlete's area of interest. Instruction will focus on both theory and application of the fundamentals involved in successfully competing in each event.

Athletes will receive:

- Training tips and helpful information on event specific drills and techniques.
- Video analysis of your event which will help you fully understand the proper mechanics and techniques involved with your event.
- Instructional handouts that will help with overall conditioning and special preparation for your track and field event.
- OUTSTANDING FACILITIES - The Fighting Scot track and field camp will utilize the Huff Athletic Center, Bobby Woll Memorial Field, and Peacock Park facilities.
- The $22-million dollar Huff Athletic Center includes a Mondo Super-X running surface, the same surface used at the last six Olympic games.

Camp Director - Roger Haynes

Cross Country-Track & Field coach at Monmouth College. Haynes was voted the NCAA Division III Indoor National Coach of the Year in 2007.

Camp Staff

The camp staff will include Brian Woodard (throws) and Dennis Staggs (sprints/hurdles) and many members of the Midwest Conference champion Fighting Scots men's and women's programs.

THE MONMOUTH COLLEGE PROGRAM

The Fighting Scots men and women have combined to win 53 Midwest Conference team titles, as well as nearly 600 individual and relay titles.

The Fighting Scots have also competed well on the national stage earning over 150 NCAA All-American awards, including 5 National Champions. The Fighting Scot men placed 3rd nationally at the 2007 NCAA Division III outdoor championships!!
