

MONMOUTH COLLEGE

MEN'S SOCCER RECORD BOOK

TEAM HISTORY

Men's soccer began varsity competition at Monmouth College in the fall of 1972. The first Midwest Collegiate Athletic Conference (MCAC) postseason tournament was held in 1971 and Monmouth began league play in 1975. The conference created North and South Divisions in 1979 to determine tournament representatives and used the format until the fall of 1997, when the present non-divisional round-robin league schedule was introduced. The MCAC (men) and MACW (women) conferences merged to form the current Midwest Athletic Conference (MWC) in 1994. Monmouth has qualified for the league tournament four times winning the conference tournament in 2001 and capturing the MWC South Division title in 1996.
